HUSTONVILLE.

Carlisle Aloora is clerking for S. D. Yowell.

Listen this week for the promised wedding bells in the West End.

We are sorry to note the illness of one of our most popular farmers and traders, Mr. Gill Cowan.

Mr. Nathan Pipes has returned from Atlanta, where he found the mule market slow and overcrowded.

C. Rud McCormack is down with the measles, but no little case of that kind can hold Rud down long. He's a hustler.

Those indebted to the firm of Weatherford & Myers will please settle with them by Jan. 1. They need all the money due them in order to buy goods.

The ice crop in this vicinity was never better and everybody who had ice houses got them well filled last week with a clear, fine quality, from five to seven inches thick.

If you need clothing see A. Jerry Adams before buying. He is cutting prices for December and January on tailor made suits, pants and overcoats. He is also agent for Lexington Steam Laundry.

John Johnson and George Edwards, of Fry's Creek, went to Lexington and enlisted in the regular army. They had thought something of going to South America and concluded that this was their best opportunity of getting there. They left for Washington Saturday.

The sale of goods saved from our recent fire continues to bring large crowds from far and near to our market and leaving with numerous bundles, recalls the actuality of the old proverb that "what is one man's loss is another's gain," and still the procession moves on.

A fire in the court house at Liberty Friday came near wrecking the handsome building. By prompt work the damage was small, which is covered by insurance. The fire was caused by the county clerk leaving some sticks of wood on the grate, which burned and fell on the floor.

Don't forget that C. W. Adams, druggist, is located in the store room of 17 B. F. Lodge and is now prepared to fill your prescriptions with only fresh drugs, as everything was bought new since the fire. He also has a nice line of fresh staples and fancy groceries, candies, fruits, &c., &c. Holiday goods cheaper than ever.

Buy at S. D. Yowell's when "UNDEAD" line of good things to eat that are fresh, carefully selected, and consist in part of Candles, Nuts, Florida Oranges, Apples, California figs, Dates, Raisins, Citron, Currants, Cranberries, Prunes, Rice, Raisins, Pickles, Crackers, Cakes and a full line of staple groceries, hardware, stoves, china, glass, and queensware, harness, etc., all at prices that will please you. Butter wanted.

At noon last Saturday, Bartlett's well drilled in Wayne county, struck a big pocket of gas that ignited from the forge and only by quick action was the rig and derrick saved from destruction. Tanks of oil near by might have been reached by the flame. This lease is beside the celebrated Beaver Creek line of wells that are now being pumped day and night. They expect another well to come in within the next 10 days.

Eddie Powell, while running his mill at Kidd's Store Saturday, was caught in the belt and seriously injured before he was extricated from the machinery, which his body had stopped after revolving around a number of times. He was unconscious when found and examination shows several ribs broken and some large contusions on his head. He has regained consciousness and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

J. W. Lockridge has just closed a deal with the Southern Slave & Tie Co. for all his timber contracts, staves and mill and they have employed him on a handsome salary to manage the business for them in Kentucky and Tennessee. This company is a branch of what is called the Whiskey Trust. Mr. Lockridge, whom we are very sorry to lose, will move to Lexington Jan. 1, where he will make his headquarters. Mr. Lockridge will sell his elegant home here privately before leaving. He has several parties that want it and as desirable homes that are for sale are very scarce and his price exceedingly low, he is sure to sell.

A Frightened Horse
Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a 100 other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Miles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. by all Druggists.

Pierce Purcell, of Troy, N. Y., shot and fatally wounded his wife and committed suicide after trying to kill his two children.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.—The worn out stomach of the over fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Treese's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Resolutions Adopted By The Danville Bar.

There was a called meeting of the local bar this morning, and Chairman R. J. Breckinridge was requested to appoint a committee to draw up suitable resolutions concerning Hon. M. C. Saufley's action while Judge of this circuit court. Hon. C. C. Fox, Chas. H. Hodges and C. C. Hagby were appointed to draw up the resolutions.

The meeting then adjourned until this afternoon when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Hon. M. C. Saufley, who for 11 years, has presided over the Boyle circuit court, is now holding the last sitting of this court before the expiration of his term of office as Judge of this 13th District, now we the members of the Boyle county bar, assembled in the circuit court room in Danville, Kentucky, on this December 15, 1903, desiring to express to Judge Saufley and put on record our admiration and respect for him as a gentleman, and as a Judge.

Resolve, That we do hereby bear this testimonial of the many eminent qualifications of Judge Saufley, by which he has adorned the bench, met and discharged the onerous duties of Judge of this District. He has been an impartial, fearless and incorruptible and learned judge, conscientious to the faithful discharge of every duty the emine imposed upon him; having and maintaining at all times a lofty ideal of the true dignity and responsibility of both bench and bar; endowed with an intellectuality of a high degree and a broad and deep culture and learning. We believe him qualified and fitted to adorn any position his ambition may prompt him to seek. We also express our appreciation of the fully recognized ability, faithfulness, and at all times good tempered fairness of the retiring Commonwealth's Attorney, the Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr. He has been a most efficient public servant, solicitous and zealous for the interests of the Commonwealth and courteous and just in his treatment of those prosecuted and in his relation with the bar and we extend our best wishes to him in his future endeavors. We ask that these resolutions be spread on the records of this court and a copy furnished the Danville newspapers and the INTERIOR JOURNAL and to Judge Saufley and to Hon. J. S. Owsley, Jr. R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, Chairman.

The Philippine Islands have a general coast line of about 11,444 statute miles, or double that of the main part of the United States, while the total area is 115,026 square miles, or less than that of New Mexico, says the National Geographic Magazine. There is a mile of coast line to every 10 miles of area, while in the United States the proportion is 553. There are nearly 1,700 islands having names and it is possible to count 3,000 islands and islets on the charts. Even the larger land masses are so elongated in figure that no point in any island is more than 60 miles distant from some part of the coast.

Fight Will be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c, and $1. Trial bottle free.

"What did the man say when you told him I was sick and not expected to live?"

JUST think of it. Official statistics show that the average number of persons killed on the streets of New York by vehicles is nearly one a day. Out of the total number for the past year, 172, almost one-half, lost their lives by being run over by street cars. Wagons and other horse-drawn vehicles killed 146, while automobiles were responsible for but nine of the casualties. The person who lives in New York carries his life in his hands and it seems that he hasn't much grip on it either.

In their speeches in the Senate Senators Hoar and Gorman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his course in Irishman affairs. Mr. Gorman said the President was imperiling the business interests of the country, and had assumed the role of attempting to act as a dictator toward Congress. Mr. Hoar compared the President to a bullying policeman. The Administration was defended by Senator Forester.

THE sixth annual report of the State Prison Commission was made to Gov. Beckham Saturday. It shows that the Frankfort prison made a profit to the State of $19,320.14 and that at the Edinburg prison there was a deficit of $14,569.24 during the fiscal year from Dec. 1, 1902, to Nov. 30, 1903. The commission will ask the Legislature to make a total appropriation of $62,000 for improvements at both prisons.

A FELLOW named Wells thinks the Lexington Democrat has wounded his feelings $5,000 worth by a publication and has instituted suit against Editor Walton for that amount. As the item was published on good authority and it proved to be absolutely true, Wells will have to seek other methods to get his Christmas money.

"SAVE MY HAT" were the first words uttered by Mrs. Basil Duke, of Maysville, who had just been kept from drowning in the Ohio river. This gives some idea of what the average woman thinks about her head gear.

THE Somerset Journal thinks that Editor Albright, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, has started a long jump down hill by being made a town councilman and we do not take issue with that splendid publication.

THE Danville Advocate has bought a typesetting machine and will install it about Jan. 1. This is a progressive move and we congratulate Editor Menefee on making it.

The Chicago hotel keepers have been informed that if they persist in raising rates during the national republican convention the national committee will rescind its action in selecting Chicago as the convention city.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, Congressman from the 11th district, arrived in Louisville and said the contest filed by D. C. Edwards was giving him no concern. He said the Kentucky delegation was a unit on the improvement of the Ohio river at Louisville.

MATRIMONIAL.

H. S. Cook, 23, and Miss Jessie C. McGinnis, 16, of Garrard, were married at Highland Sunday.

While the train was running 50 miles an hour between Richmond and Nicholasville, the Rev. E. Orland Beck, of this place, who was himself on his bridal tour, en route to Louisville, performed a double ceremony, uniting Bush Rice and Mollie Clark and Fred Clark and Bessie Alexander. The trainmen attended and steadied the couples as the train rounded curves.

The Beaumont, Texas, Daily Journal, contains a long and beautiful write-up of the marriage of Mr. Grove Cook Kennedy, brother of Mrs. M. C. Williams, of this place, to Miss Irene Fuller, a decided society favorite, of that place. The paper says that the wedding was one of the most brilliant ever seen in Beaumont and that the participants are among the most popular young people in that portion of the Lone Star State.

W. M. VanArsdale, of Hustonville, obtained license yesterday to marry Miss Carrie Hopper Camnitz, of that place. The wedding will occur at Danville Thursday next. Miss "Dot," as she is familiarly known to her many friends, is one of the most charming young women in her section and is universally popular. She is exceedingly pretty and is an accomplished musician. Mr. VanArsdale is one of the West End's substantial young men. He is to be congratulated on winning the prize Miss "Dot" will prove to be.

Miss Elizabeth Bird, of Harrison county, started early in life to feather her nest well. Her first venture outside of the home nest was when she married Bud Martin. When Martin died she married Edward Crow, a prosperous farmer. Later on she allied herself with Wm. Robbin and lived happily until the matrimonial season for Mrs. Robbin again rolled around. Then David Buzzard, a widower, appeared. Mrs. Robbin became Mrs. Buzzard yesterday. Into the Buzzard circle the bride carried one little Martin, two little Crows and one little Robbin. One little Buzzard was already there to welcome them.—Cincinnati Post.

Two of the most remarkable couples in the world live at Cannel City, Ky. In fact, they can probably not be duplicated in the world. They are Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Caudill and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Caudill. The brothers are well-to-do and highly respected general merchants, doing business as Caudill Brothers. The brothers are twins and are red headed, and so much alike that their most intimate friends and neighbors cannot tell them apart. Their wives are twin sisters and both red headed, and resemble each other so much that even their parents find it hard to tell them apart. Their hair, when combed out, reaches almost to their feet. The weight of the men is 150 pounds. Their wives weigh 100 pounds each. When the couples met all were together, and their courtship was together. The men asked for their wives the same day and at the same time, and they were married at the same time and under one ceremony. All have lived together in the same house and done all their financial business together ever since marriage.

This added to his blindness is very hard for him to bear. Mr. J. C. Horton, who has been ill, is no better. He has our utmost sympathy.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

In an address in Chicago Archbishop Quigley declared the State is encroaching on the rights of the Roman Catholic church and that God is not recognized in any of the modern constitutions. He declared also that the State must provide schools for the minority as well as the majority, and should maintain a separate system for the minority.

A MAD DOG created considerable excitement here late Saturday afternoon. It snarled at everything and everybody it came near to and would have bitten George Sautley had not he and his brother, James Sautley, put up a stiff fight. The latter shot him five times with both pistol and shot gun but his mad career was not stopped until Blackburn Hufman poured a load of shot into his carcass. It bit a valuable Scotch Collie belonging to Judge Sautley, who had the pet canine killed next day. The dog that caused the consternation was owned by Dr. C. A. Cox.

THERE will be an entertainment and treat for the Sunday School of the Presbyterian church in the lecture room Friday evening, Dec. 25, at 6 o'clock. The members of the church and all who worship with them are cordially invited to attend.

THE Cincinnati papers speak in high terms of the splendid address delivered by Judge R. G. Williams, formerly of Mt. Vernon, but now of Covington, at the memorial exercises held by the Covington Elks. The Post, which prints a fine picture of the judge, says his eloquent address was the feature of the occasion.

THE man who presided over the destinies of one of the conventions held when Judge Con Bell, of Harrodsburg, was nominated, was at Seelbach's last night. His name is Wm. S. Burch and he was an ardent supporter of Judge M. C. Sautley. Two conventions were held in the same room at the same time and the result was so much confusion that the State central committee had to straighten it out. Mr. Burch presided over one of these conventions and said it was about the worst experience he ever had. "They will never get me as chairman of another convention," he said last night, "not even if it is a Y. M. C. A. convention."—Courier Journal.

BECK-LACKY.—At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Monroe Lackey, at Richmond, Rev. Orland B. Beck, of College Hill, and Miss Mary Lackey were joined in wedlock's holy bonds, after a very impressive ceremony Thursday morning. Mr. Beck is a son of Mr. William Beck, of this county, and is an exceptionally fine young man and has a bright future before him as a minister. He has been pastor of the Methodist church at College Hill, Madison county, for about two years and is exceedingly popular with the congregation, while his bride is said to be a most lovable woman and belongs to one of the best families in the county. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL extends hearty congratulations to the happy pair and wishes them all the joy and happiness that this world affords.

"THE LAND O' COTTON."—There seems to be some peculiar fascination to the dramatist in a plot that deals with the South. There is a quiet and stimulating charm that is irresistible. "The Land O' Cotton," which comes to Walton's Opera House Wednesday night, Dec. 23, is said to be one of the most oddly unique and charming stories of Southern life that the stage has given us in recent years. It was written by John Crittenden Webb, a man who chose a field that he knew as he knew no other and that he knew as very few others have known it. Into the heated atmosphere of modern dramas, where machine-made plays vie with each other for a few weeks' game, "The Land O' Cotton" comes as a cooling breeze blown across wild meadows. With a well defined plot, characters drawn to the life, a love story fascinating in its genuineness and simplicity, enough sensation to make it interesting with fine fidelities under it all, it is a welcome variation from the regulation melodrama of the times. An exceptionally clever cast has been selected to portray the different roles and the scenic equipment is unusually massive and appropriate.

ATTENTION.—Packages to be sent the same day received must reach the express office not later than 11:15 A. M., or they will be held till the next day. J. S. Rice, Agent.

CHRISTMAS is almost upon us. While selecting Xmas presents, remember the poor, who need gifts worse than those who have money to buy what they wish. A few dollars given to the poor families of Stanford would cause more real happiness than hundreds spent for presents for the rich.

$5,000.—Northcott & Thomas, who are conducting a poultry business here, purchased 3,200 turkeys for the Thanksgiving and Xmas markets, for which they paid out in cool cash $5,000. They have closed down the turkey pens for this season. The weight of the 3,200 turkeys amounted to 30,000 pounds. It pays to raise turkeys.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF.—While carelessly handling a .41 Derringer pistol Friday night, Mr. Sid Myers accidentally shot himself in the left thigh, the ball ranging downward and Dr. J. G. Carpenter has been unable to locate it. It made quite an ugly wound, as well as a very painful one, but Mr. Myers is getting along very nicely and will soon be out again.

An Iowa farmer fatally shot his wife at church and committed suicide.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.
J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver.
It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh.
And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

BRODHEAD.

Miss Ida Sharp, one of our belles, left Tuesday to make her home with her brother, John Sharp, at Phillips, Oklahoma. Miss Ida is a good girl and we are sorry to give her up.

Bro. Pike has returned from Oklahoma and went to East Bernstadt Saturday and baptized a number of converts Sunday. Mrs. George Brooks has been visiting relatives and friends at Livingston. Mrs. John Newland, of Livingston, is spending a few days with friends here. J. Thomas Cherry is in the city this week.

Uncle Ben Yaden, our townsman, who never fails to bring the water to the surface, is now boring a well for the L.
& N. at Gum Sulphur. Albright & Adams can not wait on all of their customers and have employed a third clerk, Wm. Haggard. Miss Susie Elliott is behind the counter at the old stand, but it is now the Robbins House. Ben Pike, of Livingston, spent a few days
the home folks. Miss Mary Kuykendall, of Bowling Green, is here looking after a music class. She is said to be a fine teacher.

Our town, our church, our school, our party, our county and State have suffered a great loss in the death of our brother, J. M. Roberts. He was sick about two weeks with that fatal disease, pneumonia fever. He passed quietly out of this world last Friday night.
Bro. Roberts was one of our best citizens, was trustee of our public school and a deacon of the Baptist church and a man who felt a deep interest in the welfare of our town and county. He was a Christian gentleman and much beloved by all his neighbors. He will be sadly missed by us all. A happy home circle is broken, a place in our church is vacant and a faithful steward is gone from us.

LIBERTY.

The protracted cold spell has furnished an abundant ice harvest and it was eagerly gathered by our ice men.

Hon. P. H. Taylor and son, Earl, are in from Louisville. Eld. Montgomery went to Louisville to attend the Pastors' Sunday School Institute. Dr.
Clarence Elliott, of Humphrey, was visiting his uncle, Sheriff Elliott.

Jeff Hines and Miss Nellie Gossett, of Mintonville, were quietly married at the Exchange Hotel by Rev. A. J.
Gibney. George Coppage, of Bradfordville, and Miss Addie Brown, of this place, were married at Dr. C. L.
Herrin's, Rev. J. Q. Montgomery officiating.

Pat Whipp and Jim Cowden have gone to Scottsville for a Christmas visit. Mrs. Mollie Thomas and sons, Ad and Ode, were visiting relatives at Dunville this week. G. R. Wilkinson made a business trip to Stanford Monday. George E. Stone was over from Motticello attending court.

Our merchants are having a very pleasant experience with lady clerks.
Misses Bettie Tiltford and Mattie Wilkinson are with W. H. Wilkinson, Miss Daisy Wilkinson with J. L. Pelly and Miss Nellie Wright with Kidd & Co.
Hardin Young, Adam Ellis and Page Woodford from the North End, were here Tuesday on official business. W.
H. Wilkinson and grand son, Jim Pelly are bird hunting in Dunville.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectora-tion in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there,
the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all druggists.

ICE IN JERUSALEM.—Jerusalem, the
"city of peace" and "stronghold of Zion," is at least 3,800 years old, yet only three years ago did the natives of that part of historic Palestine begin to use ice. Many of them had never seen it in fact. A diminutive French plant has been turning out about 700 pounds a day. Jerusalem water is the finest in the world, being collected from the house tops and stored in cisterns. The ice, therefore, is like crystal, melting slowly and without a particle of sediment. The demand for ice in the sacred city was started by a modern hospital. Hotels soon after began its use, and now nearly all the foreign residents and many of the wealthy native families are consumers. No natural ice is brought into Syria.—N. Y. Press

The time has come when Santa Claus
Must recognize our civil laws,
And now the underwriters say
That he must put his beard away,
For should it catch from Xmas trees,
They will not pay their poli-cies.

Jefferson Woolford, of near Gadsden,
Ala., killed himself with rough on rats and left a note asking to be buried on the exact spot where he had committed ouicide.

Rules For Choosing a Wife.

Sharp at elbows, sharp at knees—
Sneerish temper, hard to please—
Plump at elbows, plump at knees—
Either tergiversant or tease

Foot light as a drop of dew—
It will weigh as lead on you
If her feet be light and firm,
It will gird you like a worm

Figure lissome, sinuous, evette—
She will make her fury felt,
Figure full, luxurious, massive—
You will soon be meek and passive.

Ripe lips—about the amorous jade!
Better try some coyer maid,
Thin lip, thick lip, pale or red,
Fair lip, bare-lip—all are bad!

Laughter like a chiming bell—
She will lure your soul to—well!
Don't trust to a human lute;
Better marry a deaf mute

Tresses wavy, tight in curl—
Only a towey, frowey girl
If her locks be stiff and straight,
Fierce and pitiless her hate

If her hair be gold to day,
Yesterday 'twas red as clay,
And to-morrow—who shall say!

Eyes of hazel, eyes of blue—
These are not the eyes for you.
Orbs of dusk, or orbs of dawn—
Leave, oh, leave these orbs alone!

Of all female eyes you'll find
The only safe ones are the blind.
If you'd choose a wife my rule,
Take these—they're infallible:
You will never wed a shrew
(Or a woman) if you do.
